DAILY GAZETTE.

THE PROSPECT FOR FARMERS.—The west is in luck. Last year it had the largest crop of wheat and corn this country ever saw, for which, owing to the drouth south, and the wet season on the continent and in England, very fair prices were realized.—Notwithstanding, however, the large shipments of these cereals to every quarter, the farmers of the north-west still hold over half their crop of wheat, and five-sixths of their corn, and an unusually large surplus of rye, oats, barley, and the minor crops.

This being the case, the agricultural journals are discussing the question, Will it pay for farmers to seed heavily in wheat and corn this year? Will not prices descend to a ruinous figure if, to the already overflowing warehouses of the west, a new and perhaps a heavy crop of cereals is to be added?

As farmers are now in the midst of seed-time, we present a few considerations to them which may help to form their judgment as to what is best to be done.

1. Large crops in this country have generally coexisted with good prices. Wheat was never so high as in 1854 and '55, when crops were abundant, nor so low as in 1858 when wheat was rusted, and the crop did not pay for cutting. In fact, heavy wheat and corn crops create their own demand, by stimulating all manner of industry.

2. The wheat crop of England for the coming year will inevitably fall far below an average, while, notwithstanding the heavy shipments, the country is fearfully bare of grain. The deficiency of last year is proved by official statistics to be fully 36 per cent., while the wet fall, the October frost, and the unusually stormy spring, have all conspired to interfere with the planting and growth of winter and spring crops.—Late accounts from England represent agriculturists as being sorely discouraged at the prospect before them, and no doubt is entertained but that a very large amount of wheat will be required from this country.—The Liverpool market controls the American markets, and if high prices are maintained there, they surely will be here, no matter how large a crop may be on hand.

These considerations, it seems to us, should impress upon farmers the necessity of putting all their spare land into seed.—We cannot have too much corn and bread in the land, especially if, as the grim portents of the time forebode, we are about entering upon an era of civil strife and foreign war.—N. Y. World.

A KEEN EYE FOR POETRY.—The witty editor of the Nashville Patriot recently solicited a friend—an amateur editor—to supply the printers with copy during his (the editor's) temporary absence from the office. The success of the arrangement is thus related:

Finding that there was no call for copy at the end of half an hour, Cobbwebb found the editorial business dryer than the sort he had been used to, and went out to get drunk. When a man of Cobbwebb's temperament and natural tendency to thirst deliberately goes out to get a drink, he seldom thinks it worth his while to return to the post of duty until he has taken several. Consequently when Cobbwebb got back to the office he wore a veil of invisible gauze over his eyes, his legs were as limber as a log chain, and, to tell the truth, he couldn't tell an inkstand from a soup kettle, nor a pair of scissors from a saw horse. In the midst of this state of things, there was a demand for copy. Cobbwebb aroused himself to meet the demand. The printer placed the scissors and a copy of a Cincinnati paper in his bands. "Here," said Cobbwebb, "hic—here's some poetry; when you (hic) get that set up; come (hic) back and get some (hic) some more." Cobbwebb's poetry was as follows:

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY.

" 12, Lot 67 feet front.

Square 10, Lots 4 to 17, inclusive.

" 5, Lots 1 to 4.
On Demman street.
Square 5, Lots 5 and 6.
On Garden street.
Square 3, Lots 24 to 28 inclusive.

When we returned at one o'clock we found Cobbwebb seated in the coal scuttle engaged in a dreamy attempt to clip a piece of copy out of the brim of his hat with the tongs.

ABSCONDED.—All our readers have heard of the funny Hibernian who described his visit to a gentleman's house, by saying, "Be jabers, an before ever I got my feet within the door, they kicked me out, they did,—bad 'cess to em!" The case of Arizona is not dissimilar. Arizona, which was never in the Union—never in any proper and legal sense under the Constitution of the United States—has gone out of the Union and has discarded the constitution. A fast people they are out there. The net cost of that enterprising but inchoate sovereignty, was, when the territory was purchased, ten millions of dollars, in lawful coin to certain speculators paid, the receipt of which was never acknowledged. Certain items to be added for government, military expeditions, surveys, Indian affairs, mails, etc., etc., make the total, we assume, not far from twenty millions—a pretty dowry for such a daughter. But copper-heads, rattlesnakes, sandy deserts and Yumas and Camanche Indians are expensive luxuries in these days!

We ought to be glad that Arizona has quit. The purchase of the territory was an unblushing fraud, in the beginning; it has been the sink into which much good money has since then gone down; its taking off is a bit of robbery unparalleled since Texas went off, and Louisiana and Florida seceded. Now let the handful of white men and their peons fight their Indians, carry their own mails, make their own surveys and hoe their own potatoes generally. At the proper time, but not before she is needed, perhaps not until the Camanches have thoroughly done their work, the absconding child will be reclaimed. Meanwhile, we can afford to be merry over secession run into the ground—to laugh at the treasonable idiots who have thus waged a terrible and destructive war upon their bread and butter. Let the President advertise the fact that the government will pay no debts of Arizona's contracting.—Chicago Tribune.

BLANK LEASES FOR SALE.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Saturday Evening, April 13, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

Hostilities Commenced.

To what extent the despatches we publish to-day may be relied upon we are not able to tell. The control of the telegraph at Charleston is in the hands of the secessionists, and they will permit only such despatches to go out as suits their purposes. There is no doubt, however, that a collision has occurred, and that the appeal to arms been made. How long the struggle will last, or what will be the details of its frightful features no one knows. All must regret its occurrence, but with a consciousness that it has been provoked and begun by the seceding states, there should be but one sentiment at the north, and that is to stand by the government until the contest shall close.

Our State Preparing for War.

The bill to place the st te on a "war footing" has passed both branches of the legislature. It provides for raising, on the authority of the governor, six thousand troops, to be mustered into the service of the United States; for issuing $100,000 in state bonds, bearing six persent interest, payable in ten years; not to be sold for less than their par value, and not to be sold until the president of the United States calls upon the governor of this state for troops to defend the general government. The bonds are then to be disposed of and the proceeds paid into the state treasury, to be drawn out upon the warrant of the governor, in payment of the expenses of mustering Wisconsin troops into the service of the national government.

There was a strict party vote in both branches of the legislature upon this measure. How democrats can reconcile it with their duties as good citizens to vote against furnishing men and supplies to defend the government against traitors and conspirators, is past understanding. We believe those members of the legislature who voted against this most necessary measure, at the very time when the news was being received of the bombardment of Fort Sumter, will live to be ashamed of their want of patriotism, and regret the partizan folly which induced them to put their names upon this disgraceful record.

Official Vote--Majorities.

We add to our table to-day several additional returns:

	Cole.	Knowlton.

The Madison Argus gives the following reported majorities in the remaining counties of the state, with the remark that it has made them as favorable for Judge Knowlton as possible, and does not think it possible that the official returns can increase them:

	Knowlton.		Cole.
Buffalo	250	Bad Ax	250
Chippewa	50	Clark	100
Eau Claire	40	Door	200
Manitowoc	750	Dunn	200

Waushara	500	Trempeleau	200
Wood	500
	5790		2000

TOTAL.

Cole	20,164
Knowlton	19,058

The Argus says that five towns in Sauk county were omitted in the official returns of that county, in some of which Knowlton's majority is large. The returns from that county are probably 500 too high for Cole.

The Patriot says that late returns leave little, if any, doubt of the re-election of Judge Cole.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—The official vote in this county is reported in the Milwaukee Sentinel at 2,371 for Knowlton.

REPEALED.—The land grant to the La Crosse railroad has been repealed by the legislature, with the exception of that portion between Hudson and Lake Superior.

☞ The supreme court has adjourned to the 15th day of May next.

TROOPS MOVING.—The Madison Argus of this morning says—"We are informed by a gentleman from La Crosse that two steamers, chartered by the United States government, passed that city on Wednesday no their way to St. Paul to withdraw troops in that country and convey them to parts unknown to our informant."

SPECIAL DESPATCH.—The Chicago Tribune has employed a special reporter at Washington and will hereafter receive special telegraphic despatches. It has become sick of the jumble of contradictions sent on by the agent of the associated press at New York.

High School Exhibition.

The exercises of the High School scholars at Lappin's Hall last evening were very interesting and were listened to by a large and appreciative audience. At an early hour the hall, both in its body and gallery, was filled to overflowing, insomuch that many who were late in coming were compelled to return home, by reason of their inability to obtain seats.

The exercises of the evening were opened with prayer by the Rev. G. W. Lawrence, after which a piece of music was performed by the class. A salutatory—an original and very creditable production—was then pronounced by Master Wm. M. Lawrence, who was followed, with a composition,—subject "Mission of the Dew Drop"—by Miss Jennie C. Corson, which in its matter was excellent, and which was read in a clear and distinct voice. "A Nation's Possessions," a select piece, was then well delivered by Mr. A. S. Douglass, followed by a composition from Miss Nettie W. Eycleshimer, of much excellence, entitled "Fickleness of Fortune."

After music by the class, a very good composition, subject "Now and Then," was read by Miss Texanna Burgess, but in a voice not sufficiently loud to be heard distinctly by the audience. Moses T. DeWitt then delivered a select piece, entitled "Toil, The Price of Excellence," which was well done. "Power of a Watchword," an excellent composition by Miss Julia E. Calkins was read by Mr. George W. Smith, which was succeeded by a colloquy, denominated "Mrs. Sniffles' Confession" in which Miss Mary F. Williams personated the character of Mrs. Sniffle, and Wm. R. Graham played the part of the Rev. Mr. Sniffles. Both did well—"Mrs. Sniffles" enunciating in a loud and distinct voice, her own sage sayings, with the most approved Yankee intonations, the effect of which was to convulse the audience with laughter.

The song "I'll Tell Nobody" by Miss Susie B. Holden was admirably executed; and "Earth's Battle Fields" a good composition, by Miss L. Theotiste Corson was well read, after which "God Bless Our Stars Forever," a declamation by Master Fred B. Pullan was creditably pronounced. Miss Maria L. Herkimer then read a very excellent composition, quite distinctly, the subject of which was "Human Imperfections," and was succeeded by Gerando M. Hanchet, with an original address, which was well delivered and contained some very excellent local hits. When we say his subject was "The City Charter" it will readily be seen there was a chance for "hits" and harder ones too, than this young boy gave on the occasion alluded to.

"O give me a Home by the Sea," a song by Miss Mary A. Stevens, was very sweetly sung; while "An Apology" by Henry H. Guernsey was handsomely made. "Ours a World to Enjoy," was said by those who were near enough to hear it, to be a good composition, but it was read by its author, Miss Libbie Hoskins, in too low a tone to be distinctly heard by the large audience before her.

"The Tea Party," a colloquy, was made up of Miss Maggie F. Aires as Mrs. Partington, Miss C. J. Hanchett as Mrs. Tucker, Miss Jennie C. Corson as Mrs. Broome, and Miss Alice J. Hume as Mrs. Wiggins. They composed a nice "quadruple" of "gay old gals," and they talked as glibbly of "bonnets" and "ruffles" and "small talk" generally, as if they had been drinking tea for the last sixty years. Considering that none of the representatives of these old ladies had more than entered upon their teens, we have only to say that they all gave good promise of making "a noise in the world" hereafter. The piece was excellently well performed, as the audience testified by their applause.

After music by the class, a good composition, quite distinctly enunciated was read by Miss Sarah J. Thomas—her subject was "Courage." "An Address to Young Persons" was admirably pronounced by Mr. Wm. R. Graham. "This World," a very sensible composition by Miss Maggie F. Aires, was well and distinctly read, which was followed by a quaint production in the shape of a composition from Wheeler Bowen, entitled "Fuel." It was original in style, and with its local allusions, happily conceived.

The song "Not for Gold or Precious Stones," was very beautifully and artistically sung by Miss Nettie W. Eyclesbimer; after which a very beautiful select piece, entitled "Passing Under the Rod," by Mrs. Dana of Charleston, S. C., was pronounced quite creditably by Duane J. Armstrong. "Fishing," a composition by Miss Ada De Lano, contained many excellent and original thoughts, and was pretty distinctly read. The exercises of the evening were closed by a well delivered declamation by Geo. W. Smith, entitled "The Union."

With the exception of a slight disturbance in the gallery, created by some half-grown men who have not yet learned how to act the part of gentlemen, the exercises of last evening passed off very pleasantly indeed. They exhibited a praiseworthy degree of progress on the part of the students, and reflected credit upon those in whose care the educational interests of the city have been confided.

THE FEELING IN TEXAS.—A gentleman writes to the Louisville Journal from Texas as follows:

"It is now about twenty years since I commenced taking the Louisville Journal, and I fear my time will be out before this reaches you. I can't give it up at this time, as you stand up for the Union like a man. I am for the Union at all hazards, and we have some that voted to go out that would be glad to get a chance to go back."

One writing from another part of Texas, to the same paper, says:

"I am pleased to tell you that secession is growing more unpopular every day, and I feel confident that in six months this state, if it has a chance, will vote it down by a larger majority than it gave for secession. Hon. J. A. Hamilton, Union candidate for the state senate, was elected by a large majority last Monday. Our old patriot, Gen. Sam. Houston, has been forced out of office for not perjuring himself. The convention and legislature have left Austin and carried off eighty thousand dollars of school money."

Proceedings of the City Council.

REGULAR MEETING,
FRIDAY EVENING, April 12, 1861.

Present—The Mayor and all the aldermen.

The usual order of business was suspended.

An order for $93,08 on the judgment fund in favor of Miss Newman, a teacher in the public schools, was authorized.

The finance committee reported in favor of paying the account of J. W. Seaver, $32,-92; Lyman Smith, $8,50; Chas. T. Wilcox, 6,00; C. C. Phelps, $1,00; —— Tiffany, $2,00; —— Treadway, $1,00. Report adopted. All these accounts but Mr. Seaver's were for work on bridge.

The same committee reported against paying a bill of $28,50 from D. M. White for 236 feet of stone thrown into the river to protect the Monterey bridge. After some discussion, the bill was laid aside for further action.

The bonds of H. A. Patterson as justice of the peace, and of C. G. Gillett, J. W. Plato, H. A. Robertson and M. Mulvihill were approved.

An estimate of the city engineer for grading Jackson street between Bluff and Madison street was presented and placed on file.

The finance committee reported progress on the settlement with the city treasurer, and were granted further time.

Ald. Pearce moved to issue an order on the 4th ward fund for $274,60, due him for work performed in grading Center avenue.

This motion led to considerable discussion, and Ald. Shelton opposed the payment from that fund, on the ground that the claim was a charge against the property on the avenue. Ald. Bates contended that the circuit court having decided the tax on the avenue illegal, and Mr. Pearce denied his remedy on the property, it was an equitable claim upon the ward fund.

The question being taken, the motion of Ald. Pearce was adopted—Ald. Belton and Shelton voting in the negative.

The mayor announced his intention to refuse to sign the order, and stated that he would give his reasons in writing at the next meeting of the council.

Adjourned to Monday evening next.

GEOLOGY OF WISCONSIN.—The Wisconsin Journal says: "Prof. James Hall has submitted to the legislature a report upon the lead regions of Wisconsin, embracing a chapter on the general geology of the state and its relations to the geology of the surrounding states, which, with the details of the geology, minerology and mining, will make a volume of between four or five hundred pages.

If Prof. Hall's "Geology of Wisconsin" be anything like that of Iowa, the money paid for it by the state might as well be laid out otherwise.—Dubuque Herald.

Just so. The lead region of Wisconsin affords one of the most splendid fields in the universe, for geologists to make their displays. The country is perforated on every hand, ready for the geologist to go down and read the rocks which are regular and nearly horizontal; in but few places are they tilted or turned on edge by subterranean commotion. Well, the geologists have been pouring over these diggings for half a dozen years, have issued report after report and made a great ado. And what is the result? We answer, nothing. They have taught miners nothing but names of things; not a discovery of minerals has been made by the geologists, nor has anything they have done or said lead to a single discovery. Most of what the geologists have written concerning our mines has been picked up from the miners, some of whom are life experienced, good observers and great talkers. All this and little more.—Grant County Herald.

A DOG AND TIGER FIGHT.—A rather select entertainment came off at the Arsenal Park yesterday afternoon, in the shape of a fight between a Brazilian tiger and two bull dogs. A large crowd of roughs, sporting characters and pickpockets, flocked thither early in the afternoon, filled all the bar rooms in the vicinity and anxiously awaited the beginning of the show. The "preliminaries" were duly arranged when a heavy shower of rain came on. Nevertheless, the large portion of the crowd sallied out of the beer house to the cage where in the tiger was confined and witnessed the fight regardless of the rain. The cage in which the tiger was confined was about 18 feet long and ten feet wide. At about 3 o'clock, two dogs, one a bull slut of rather large size and the other rather below the ordinary size—were let into the cage. The dogs were no sooner inside than the tiger sprang nearly the entire length of his cage, and gave every indication that he would make short work of disposing of his canine assailants. In this respect, however, his backers were disappointed. He lay upon his back and occasionally gave the dogs some severe scratches with his paws, but after playing about him for a short time, the bull slut caught hold of his neck, and in such a manner that the tiger found it impossible to free himself. The dog retained her hold until pulled off, when the tiger was found to be too weak to stand. It was thought he had been fatally injured. At the conclusion of the exhibition the crowd departed, seemingly disappointed at the result of the fight.—St. Louis Republican.

PRAIRIE FOWL FOR LONG ISLAND.—We have seen a consignment of six brace of live pinnated grouse or prairie fowl that had been consigned to Charles E. Whitehead, Esq., of this city, and are destined for the plains of Long Island. They were caught in nets near Peoria, in Illinois, and were sent by Mr. O. P. Secor, of that place, for propagation. After a passage of six days, the hens looked exceedingly bright. The cocks showed some signs of battle, and one of them was lying dead. This was the result of so many males being confined together in their mating season, at a time when they are always contending, even on the limitless prairies. The peculiar sack of the males, covering each side of the neck, is in these specimens fully distended, showing the bright saffron colors so well illustrated in Audubon's illustrations.

Not more than thirty years ago, this bird was still living on Long Island, and at the time New York was a Dutch colony, they were as plentiful there as they are now at the west.

An indiscriminate slaughter at all times of the year has extirpated them, and an association of gentlemen of this city are now trying to repair a loss created by the want of laws in this respect, or rather of their persistent violation. It is the evidence of a gentle rural taste to encourage the breeding of all kinds of birds, and one which will ultimately make the island and our Central Park vocal with the whistle and call of birds that are now never seen alive.—New York Evening Post.

Florida has just sold 500,000 acres of land to some New Orleans speculators at two cents an acre. That is what we should call dirt cheap.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.
BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

LAST NIGHT'S REPORT.

[Condensed from the Milwaukee Sentinel.]

WASHINGTON, April 12.

Private despatches have been received from the south which leave no reasonable doubt that hostilities were commenced at Charleston at an early hour this morning. We are in momentary expectation of full particulars.

[Here follows a series of telegraphic despatches between Gen. Beauregard and Mr. Walker, secretary of the southern confederacy. The evacuation of Fort Sumter was demanded, to which Major Anderson replied:

"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication, demanding the evacuation of this fort, and to say in reply thereto that it is a demand with which I regret that my sense of honor and my obligations to my government, prevent my compliance."

Gen. Beauregard adds to this reply that Maj. Anderson said he would probably await the first shot, and if he was not battered to pieces he would be starved out in a few days.

Gen. Beauregard was directed by Secretary Walker to refrain from an attack if Maj. Anderson would indicate any specific time when he would evacuate the fort, and stipulate not to use his guns unless he was first attacked. If he would not state a specific time when he would leave, then Gen. B. was to reduce the fort in any manner he judged most practicable. Major Anderson refused to make this agreement, and the report continues as follows:]

CHARLESTON, April 12.

The ball has opened. War is inaugurated. The batteries of Sullivan's Island and Morris Island and other points were opened on Fort Sumter at 4 o'clock this morning.

Fort Sumter has returned the fire and a brisk cannonading has been kept up. No information has been received from the seaboard yet.

CHARLESTON, April 12.

The firing has continued all day without intermission against the Stevens and floating battery, and Fort Johnson, they being the only ones operating against him, from which fifteen or eighteen shots struck the floating battery without effect. Breaches, to all appearances, being made in the sides of Sumter, exposed to the fire. Portions of the parapette were destroyed, and several guns shot away. The fight will continue all night.

Two of Fort Sumter's guns have been silenced, and it is reported that a breech has been made in the south-east wall.

Not a casualty has yet happened to any of the forces of the 19 batteries in position. Only 7 have opened fire on Fort Sumter, the remaining are held in reserve for the expected fleet. Two thousand men reached the city this morning and embarked for Morris Island and the neighborhood.

CHARLESTON, April 11.

Intercepted despatches disclose the fact that Mr. Fox, who had been allowed to vis it Major Anderson on the pledge that his purpose was pacific, employed his opportunity to devise a plan for supplying the fort by force, that this plan had been adopted by the Washington government and was in progress of execution.

HARRISBURG, April 12.

A bill has been reported in the house, appropriating half a million dollars for arming and equipping the militia of the state. It provides for the appointment of an adjutant, commissioner and two generals by the governor.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.

The Enquirer has a despatch from Charleston that President (?) Davis has consented to the entrance of a supply vessel into Charleston harbor, and that not a gun will be fired. The report is doubtful.

NEW YORK, April 12.

The Commercial says Reverdy Johnson, now here, expresses warm approval of the President's present movement and emphatically affirms that Maryland will give the administration a cordial support.

NEW YORK, April 12.

The Herald's despatch says that Fort Moultrie began the bombardment with two guns, to which Anderson replied with three shots from his barbette guns, when the batteries at Mt. Pleasant, Cumming's Point and the floating battery opened a brisk fire of shot and shell. Anderson replied only at long intervals until between 7 and 8 o'clock, when he opened from two tiers of guns looking toward Moultrie and Steven's battery, but at three o'clock failed to produce any serious effect. During the greater part of the day Anderson directed his fire principally against Moultrie.

The fort will probably be carried by storm. It is reported that the Harriet Lane received a shot through her wheel house. She is in the offing. No other government ships are in sight. The troops are pouring into the city by thousands.

TO-DAYS REPORT.

[Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

CHARLESTON, April 12.

The bombardment continued from the floating battery, Steven's and other batteries. Sumter continued returning fire.

It is reported that three war vessels are now off the bar.

MONTGOMERY, April 12.

An extra session of congress is called for April 29th.

HARRISBURG, April 12.

The war bill passed both houses to-night, without amendment. It has been signed by the governor.

CHARLESTON, April 12.

The firing has ceased for the night, to be renewed early in the morning.

Ample arrangements are made to prevent reinforcements to-night.

Special to the Herald.—Two men were wounded on Sullivan Island, and a number struck by spent projectiles.

Three ships are visible in the offing.

It is believed an attempt will be made to-night to reinforce Sumter.

From the regularity of the firing throughout, Anderson has a larger force than was supposed.

It has rained all day.

It is denied that any portion of the confederate states loan has been offered in New York. More than the entire amount has been arranged at par within the limits of the southern confederacy.

RICHMOND, April 12.

Hon. John Tyler received this p. m. from Montgomery, copies of official despatches between Gen. Beauregard, Maj. Anderson and secretary of war Walker.

These were printed and circulated.

NEW YORK, April 13.

Despatches received from Col. Waite commander Texas forces, state that a strong Union feeling is growing. Gov. Houston predicts the return of the secessionists to their allegiance—they are terribly taxed. Houston has been offered support by the Germans in every part of the state, but declined it.

The Tribune's Washington despatch says Capt. Fox commands the vessel with provisions which is to lead the expedition into Charleston.

The president received the war news calmly and with a confident feeling that he had done his duty in the matter.

Senator Sherman arrived from Ohio and reports the republicans there ready to stand by the president to the last.

The opinion prevails that an attempt will be made before sunrise to run the light draught vessels of the fleet up to Sumter to reinforce and provision it.

BALTIMORE, April 12.

War news is received with regret and general sympathy with the government is expressed.

CHARLESTON, April 12.

LATER.— Bombardment is continuing with mortars and will be kept up all night.

It is supposed that Anderson is resting his men for the night.

Vessels cannot get in as a storm is raging and the sea rough, making it impossible to effect reinforcement to-night.

The floating battery works well.

WASHINGTON, April 12.

The Virginia commissioners arrived in this city this morning, and during the afternoon they visited the President, but not in their official capacity and were received by him directly after the cabinet meeting adjourned.

It is said the expedition to reinforce Sumter was against the advice of Gen. Scott, who urged the evacuation of Sumter and Pickens.

MILWAUKEE, April 13.

Sheboygan official—Cole 910 majority. He is elected beyond question.

C. C. SHOLES.

SAVANNAH, April 13.

The lights at Tybee and in this harbor have been discontinued for the present.

CHARLESTON, April 13—10:30 a. m.

At intervals of twenty minutes firing was kept up all night on Fort Sumter. Major Anderson ceased firing from Fort Sumter in the evening. All night he was engaged in repairing damages and protecting the barbette guns. He commenced to return the fire at 7 o'clock this morning.

Fort Sumter seems to be greatly disabled, the battery on Cummings' Point doing it great damage. At 9 o'clock this morning a dense smoke poured out from Fort Sumter. The federal flag is at half mast, signaling distress. The shells from Fort Moultrie and the batteries on Morris Island fall into Maj. Anderson's stronghold thick and fast, and they can be seen in their course from the Charleston battery.

NORFOLK, April 13.

Orders have been received to fit out the figate Merrimac immediately.

CHARLESTON, April 13.

The cannonading is going on fiercely from all points, from the vessels outside, and all along our coast.

It is reported that Fort Sumter is on fire.

WASHINGTON, April 13.

The President has directed that Captain Wm. B. St. John of the 3d infantry and Lieut. Abner Smead of the 1st artillery cease to be officers of the army.

The regular troops here have been ordered to proceed to the outskirts of the city to guard every avenue thereto, while the volunteers recently mustered guard the armories and public buildings.

Videttes are constantly running through the streets.

The President, in the exercise of his discretion to designate a newspaper in which the executive advertisements shall be published, in addition to the two papers publishing them by virtue of their circulation, has designated the National Republican.

The President has made the following Massachusetts appointments:

Chas. A. Phelps, surveyor of the port of Boston in place of F. Webster who was removed at the earnest request of the Massachusetts congressional delegation. Eugene S. Norton, navy agent at Boston. Richard H. Dana, district attorney. John S. Keyes marshal. J. A. Goodwin, postmaster at Lowell. C. C. P. Baldwin, marshal and Geo. Howe, attorney for Vermont. James C. Aiken, marshal, and Ed. G. Bradford, attorney for Delaware. L. G. Vance, postmaster at Morristown, Pa. Herman Bennett, postmaster at Norwich, New York.

BOSTON, April 13.

War news from Charlrston creates a profound sensation in this city and throughout the state.

MONTGOMERY, April 13.

The president and secretary of war were serenaded last night. The latter was called out. He said that the confederate flag would soon be waving over Fort Sumter and from the federal capitol of Washington if the independence of the southern states was not recognized and hostilities discontinued. The only despatch received last night was from Gen. Beauregard and is believed to be favorable.

HOLT, BOWEN & WILCOX.
Janesville, April 10, 1861.

A Disgraceful Outrage.

Last evening while the exercises of the high school pupils were in progress, a large number of vulgar hand bills, intended as a burlesque of the exercises, were distributed through the hall. Many persons supposing them to be the regular programme of the evening, circulated them before they were aware of its character, and many of them passed into the hands of ladies present.

It was a most disgraceful proceeding throughout, and all who were in any way engaged in it, either in writing, printing or circulating the bill with a knowledge of its character, have been guilty of a discreditable act for which there is no excuse or apology.

The vulgar abuse of Mr. Cass, the principal of the high school, will of course be harmless as to him, but this in no way relieves the perpetrators of the outrage of the disgrace attaching to them.

What is technically called "the imprint" of the Gazette office was affixed to this bill, but in such a manner as to include our office in the attempted burlesque of the exhibition. This attempt to fix the printing upon this office will fail as signally as the effort to caricature Mr. Cass, the teachers of the school and its pupils.

For the credit of the city we are willing to believe that this bill proceeded from some few persons whose desire to be smart overcame their sense of propriety and decency.

ASTOUNDING DEVELOPMENTS — SLAVE STEALING AND NEGRO HUNTING.—Some weeks since, a man, a stranger, came to a respectable colored woman, for fifteen years resident in this city, a Mrs. Johnson. He introduced himself by saying that he was a friend of the colored race. He had learned that Mrs. Johnson had a daughter in slavery in Missouri. This started the old colored woman's confidences only slowly, and it was not until the second visit that he made much headway with his errand. Finally, however, he persuaded her of his good intention, his experience and ability in this particular line, and she agreed with him that he was to receive from her $150, for services and expenses in running off this daughter and her family, a husband and three children. Mrs. Johnson mortgaged her little home for a part of this sum.

This family was the Harris family, and they arrived in due time, and were closely sheltered here. Their new found friend and rescuer stuck closely to them, bade them keep the house of the mother and never be seen out of doors, and they followed his instructions.

Meanwhile this identical man, after a trip to St. Louis, came back, and was closeted again and again with federal officers in this city. They used a room at the Tremont House for this purpose; and when the scheme was carefully ripened, the string was pulled, the game bagged, and the very party who stole the slaves in Missouri and was paid one hundred and fifty dollars by the mother of the woman for so doing, is equally officious in sending them back, and so shares in the reward offered by the master.

There is reason to believe that the scoundrel is one of a regularly organized gang in St. Louis and Chicago who make a business of running off and then returning slaves, by the shuttle-like process making a very good thing of it. The principal operators are ex-policemen, and policemen high in favor at St. Louis —Chicago Tribune.

There has been a heavy April storm at the east. On Monday a foot of snow fell in New Hampshire and Massachusetts, and in central New York three or four inches.

he defies
ALL COMPETITION
from all other establishments, little as they may be, or big as they pretend to be. His

To the Public.

THE undersigned takes this method of notifying his friends and the public that he has leased, for a term of years, the East half of the Hyatt House building in this city, for the purposes of a FIRST CLASS HOTEL, to be kept under his own management and direction, and to be opened on or about the First Day of May Next.
Prior to opening the house, he deems it proper to say that that portion of the building leased by himself, will be ENTIRELY REMODELED, and when the changes are completed, he flatters himself that the NEW HYATT HOUSE
will be found to be the most convenient and comfortable in the west. In this notice he does not deem it necessary to state any changes he proposes to make, except that the office, instead of being where it now is, will be located on the first floor in the Eastern end of the building, while the Large Hall, 40 by 100 Feet, on the second floor, in the Western side of the building will be connected with the hotel and converted into a room suitable for THEATERS, CONCERTS AND DANCING PARTIES, making it one of the largest, most desirable and convenient public halls in the state.
Having had considerable experience as a hotel keeper in this city, in the old "American House" he hopes to be able (after the time above stated) to make the New Hyatt House a comfortable and desirable Home, for all who may choose to place themselves under his care.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry, on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.
